Your correspondent wishes to say a word here on the work of two of the pitchers on our two junior teams, Simmous, of the Cyclones, and F. Fearing, of the Blue and Grays. Both are boys under 20 years old, and while neither has any great speed, both have done some very fine work this year. At Hertford last week Simons was pitted against a man who pitched in the New York State Lengne for seven years and won his game. Fearing has pitched in six games this year, and in no game have as many as ten safe hits been made off him.
